

A Tribute to Inspirational Women

Resto L'Antoinette, co-founded by Leonardo Moura and Chef Jamie Adams, with Chef Jeffrey Gomez as the head chef, is a culinary haven where passion, inspiration, and exquisite flavors converge to create an unparalleled dining experience. This establishment is a heartfelt celebration of exceptional women who have profoundly influenced Leonardo and Jamie's lives.

Each dish at Resto L'Antoinette embodies the spirit of these remarkable women, weaving captivating stories that resonate with every guest. The restaurant honors inspiring figures, including Leonardo's wife, Antoinette, a symbol of strength and boundless love, and Chef Jamie's wife, Kim, a cardiac nurse epitomizing resilience. The narrative extends further, paying tribute to other extraordinary women and building on the culinary traditions of il Giallo and Lagarde to create something truly exceptional.

In a gesture of gratitude and in honor of all dreamers and inspiration-makers, Resto L'Antoinette raises glasses and voices to the incredible women who illuminate our world. Cheers to the spirit of inspiration that permeates Resto L'Antoinette and to the remarkable women who have shaped and continue to influence our lives.
